CATHEDRAL GUADALUPE

2215 ROSS AVENUE DALLAS ARTS DISTRICT

The Arts District Chorale's 2004-2005 season opens with one of J. S. Bach's greatest sacred choral works — his magnificent setting of the Latin Magnificat — paired with the Magnificat by Antonio Vivaldi, the composer who most influenced him. The concert promises to be an evening of glorious music in the acoustical splendor of Cathedral Guadalupe, the High-Victorian Gothic architectural masterpiece that the Dallas Morning News calls "the area's finest venue for choral music." This concert is part of Southern Methodist University's "Art & Soul 2004" celebration of arts and the spiritual experience.
